

2025 HHDC Grant Program – Request for Applications

HHDC TRAVEL AWARD

The objective of the HHDC Member Travel Reimbursement program is to support the presentation of HHDC member's work at professional society meetings, by providing funding for travel and associated costs.

Requirements

Travel Reimbursement recipients must be first author of an abstract being presented at a national conference that is closely aligned with the mission of the HHDC to increase understanding about the causes and consequences of diabetes and closely related cardiometabolic conditions like obesity, liver disease, and cancer, as well as strategies for prevention or treatment of these conditions. Priority will be given to travel to the American Diabetes Association's Annual Scientific Sessions.

Key Information

$2,500 maximum will be awarded per person in a 12-month rolling period. This is an open funding opportunity with no single deadline. Funds are distributed on a first come, first served basis. Applications are due no less than 60 days prior to the first day of travel.

Eligibility

Applicants for the Travel Award must be a Member, Associate Member, or Trainee Member of the HHDC and have a primary appointment at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center. Preference will be given to students, post-docs, and junior faculty.

Application Materials

A complete application consists of the items listed below, combined into one (1) single .pdf file for submission.

1. Travel Reimbursement Application Form (see below).
2. Letter of Intent (not to exceed three (3) pages total), consisting of (all items are required):
  - a. Purpose of travel.
  - b. All details of travel, including location and exact or anticipated dates.
  - c. A summary of how you, your work/program, and HHDC will benefit from the travel.
  - d. A detailed narrative of other sources of funds received. If no other funds have been received, include a narrative of all funding sources which have been exhausted.
  - e. A copy of the abstract submitted.
3. Estimated or Actual Budget (not to exceed one page). There is no required budget format, but please clearly list each expense individually and do not combine items into "blanket" categories.
4. NIH biosketch of faculty applicant or, if applicant is a student, NIH biosketch of mentoring PI.
5. Appendix. Provide either: a) confirmation that the abstract was submitted (with date of receipt), or b) confirmation that the abstract was accepted for presentation at the meeting, if available. If not yet received, note the expected date of notification.
6. Letter of Support from your supervisor (i.e., department chair, section chief, mentoring PI, or similar).

7. Signed Award Conditions and Agreement (see below).

Application Process

Applications are due to HHDCGrants@ouhsc.edu no less than 60 days prior to the conference/meeting date. Please title the application attached to the e-mail: HHDCTravel - [PI Last Name, First Name]. Please submit the application as a single file in pdf format. Failure to follow these steps could cause your application to be overlooked and not reviewed by the HHDC Grants Review Committee.

Evaluation Criteria

Applications will be assigned a score based on the following criteria:

- Degree of need for the travel.
- Impact of the travel on the member and the degree to which the travel will enhance their work.
- Benefit of the travel to the mission of Harold Hamm Diabetes Center and the degree to which it promotes the HHDC.
- Priority will be given to applicants that have limited funds or unfunded research.

Award Conditions

- Funds may be used for direct travel costs only, including transportation, parking, airfare, accommodations, and conference registration fees. Funds may not be requested for meals, gratuity, or per diem. Please direct any questions regarding allowable expenditures in advance of budget preparation, or transaction or commitment, to HHDCGrants@ouhsc.edu.
- All purchases, financial transactions, and similar related to the use of the awarded funds will be coordinated by the awardee's department according to their policies and procedures.
- The awardee's departmental budget contact will process the travel claim and then submit an invoice showing expenditures and reimbursement within 30 days of the completion of the travel. Requests for reimbursements prior to this deadline may be considered.
- The awardee's budget contact designated on their application is required to notify HHDC Administration at HHDCGrants@ouhsc.edu in advance of any reports of expenditures that cannot be made available by the deadlines listed above. Otherwise, reimbursement may be denied.
- It is the responsibility of the awardee's department to ensure adherence to all applicable institutional policies, including but not limited to purchasing policies, research compliance, and similar. Expenditures in excess of the award amount or expenditures not allowed by university or similar policy will not be reimbursed and are the sole responsibility of the Awardee's department.
- Recipients of the HHDC Travel Reimbursement are expected to acknowledge their affiliation with Harold Hamm Diabetes Center by clearly stating it in their title, biography, and printed material(s) including posters, and presentations.
- If the travel is related to a specific project, awardees must include the following statement on any manuscripts, presentations, or similar publications related to the project or its results: "This work is supported in part by an award from the Harold Hamm Diabetes Center at the University of Oklahoma."
